Fund manager's commentary

Global equities rose 2.52% in sterling, buoyed by hopes of an imminent Sino-US interim trade deal. US stocks outperformed, rising 3.67% in sterling and the EF Brompton Global Equity Fund was negatively affected by its relatively-low allocation to the US stockmarket. UK equities lagged, rising 1.76% but smaller companies outperformed, up 4.77% as investors proved sanguine in advance of the election. The UK avoided a recession, with third-quarter gross domestic product rising 0.3% quarter-on-quarter according to the initial estimate. All four of the portfolio's UK equity fund holdings outperformed because of their bias towards companies with greater sensitivity to domestic economic trends. Liontrust Special Situations and the iShares FTSE 250 exchange-traded fund (ETF) did best, rising 4.33% and 4.12% respectively. Japanese equities also underperformed, rising 0.68% in sterling, but the portfolio's three Japanese equity holdings outperformed, with T Rowe Price Japanese doing best, up 4.43%, while the sterling-hedged GLG Japan CoreAlpha holding gained 2.68%. In Europe excluding the UK, where equities lagged, rising 1.48% in sterling, all three holdings outperformed, with Threadneedle European Smaller Companies and BlackRock European Dynamic doing best, rising 4.30% and 4.29% respectively. Equities in emerging markets and Asia excluding Japan were conspicuously weak, down 0.09% and up only 0.29% respectively in sterling, and the HSBC MSCI Russia ETF lagged, down 0.69%. Gold fell 3.08% in sterling and the iShares Gold Producers ETF was the portfolio's weakest holding, falling 4.07%. The EF Brompton Global Equity Fund rose 3.05%† in November while the sector gained 3.11%.

Investment policy

The Fund will typically invest a minimum of 80% of its net asset value in collective investment schemes, exchange traded funds and unregulated collective investment schemes. The Fund may also invest in investment trusts (and similar instruments), other transferable securities, money-market instruments, fixed income instruments, deposits and foreign exchange contracts.

Investments will not be confined by industrial, economic or geographical sector. The Fund may hold, on a temporary basis, all or part of its assets in cash or other ancillary liquid assets.

The Fund may utilise derivatives for the purposes of efficient portfolio management (typically hedging, including investing in hedged share classes, which attempts to mitigate against falls in the value of the Fund's assets and the effects of changes in currency exchange rates against the Fund's base currency, which is pounds sterling).

The Fund's benchmark is IA Global. This represents a comparator benchmark because the Fund's performance can be compared to funds which also sit within this industry sector.
