Fund manager's commentary

The Sino-US trade war escalated and both sides raised tariffs. Chinese policymakers were dubbed "currency manipulators" as the renminbi fell against the dollar. Global equities fell 1.80% in sterling, with equities in emerging markets and Asia excluding Japan underperforming, down 4.33% and 3.83% respectively. Among safe-haven assets, global bonds returned 2.59% in sterling while UK government bonds and sterling corporate bonds gained 3.76% and 1.40% respectively. The EF Brompton Global Growth Fund's bond holdings rose but underperformed. Gold rose 7.12% in sterling and the iShares Gold Producers exchange-traded fund was the portfolio's best performer, rising 11.87%. The BlackRock World Mining investment trust lagged, however, falling 7.63%. Among the other global equity holdings, Lindsell Train Global Equity rose 0.88% against the trend because of its bias towards high-quality growth companies. UK equities underperformed, falling 4.15% on fears of a no-deal Brexit. Schroder Recovery and Man GLG UK Income did worse, down 5.99% and 4.85% respectively because of their bias towards "value" stocks, but Lindsell Train UK Equity fell only 0.09% thanks to its quality focus. All alternative funds delivered positive returns, with the 3i Infrastructure investment trust doing best, up 4.91%. Investment in infrastructure stocks increased through the purchase of Legg Mason Global Infrastructure. Sterling fell 2.77% and 0.54% respectively against the yen and the dollar. Yen-strength was reflected in the 2.82% rise by the Goldman Sachs Yen Liquid Reserves holding. The EF Brompton Global Growth Fund fell 1.74%† in August while the sector fell 1.93%.

Investment policy

The Fund will typically invest a minimum of 80% of its net asset value in collective investment schemes, exchange traded funds, unregulated collective investment schemes, and may also include transferable securities (including investment trusts and similar instruments), money-market instruments, fixed income instruments, deposits and foreign exchange contracts.

It is expected that exposure to equity markets will typically range from a minimum of 40% to a maximum of 85% of the total Fund, with the aim of achieving the Fund's objective. However, investments will not be confined by industrial, economic or geographical sector.

The Fund may also hold, on a temporary basis, all or part of its assets in cash or other ancillary liquid assets.

The Fund may utilise derivatives for the purposes of efficient portfolio management (typically hedging, including investing in hedged share classes, which attempts to mitigate against falls in the value of the Fund's assets and the effects of changes in currency exchange rates against the Fund's base currency, which is pounds sterling).

The Fund's benchmark is IA Mixed Investment 40-85% Shares. This represents a comparator benchmark because the Fund's performance can be compared to funds which also sit within this industry sector.
