Fund manager's commentary

Global equities fell 10.83% in sterling while bonds rose 0.70% as more countries moved into lock-down to combat Covid-19. The Federal Reserve and Bank of England cut interest rates to near zero and announced quantitative easing. The US and UK governments launched fiscal stimulus packages of $2 trillion and £330 billion respectively to help businesses and families. The global gross domestic product fall will be sharp and large but should prove temporary and the monetary and fiscal measures may in time ensure a strong recovery. Oil prices fell 53.35% in sterling in response to the Russo-Saudi price war. Lower energy costs may provide a further economic stimulus. UK equities lagged, falling 13.44%, while smaller companies did even worse, down 28.01%. Among the EF Brompton Global Opportunities Fund's UK equity holdings, Liontrust Special Situations was relatively resilient, down 12.91%, but the Vanguard FTSE 250 exchange-traded fund (ETF) fell 24.17%. The UK equity allocation increased through the addition of the SPDR FTSE UK All Share ETF. The actively-managed global equity investments outperformed, with Fundsmith Equity, down 3.66%, the most resilient. UK government bonds rose 1.59% but sterling corporate and high-yield bonds fell 7.52% and 13.19% respectively. The sterling-hedged RWC Asia Convertibles holding fell 7.99% as sterling fell 2.92% against the dollar while Artemis Strategic Bond fell 6.38%. Among the alternative funds, BlackRock European Absolute did best, rising 2.16%. The holding in 3i Infrastructure, down 16.53%, was increased. The EF Brompton Global Opportunities Fund fell 10.99%† in March while the sector fell 10.74%.

Investment policy

The Fund will typically invest a minimum of 80% of its net asset value in collective investment schemes, exchange traded funds and unregulated collective investment schemes.

The Fund may also invest in investment trusts (and similar instruments), other transferable securities, money-market instruments, fixed income instruments, deposits and foreign exchange contracts. Investments will not be confined by industrial, economic or geographical sector.

Although the Fund will usually be invested across a range of asset classes, in certain market conditions, the Investment Manager may decide to hold up to 100% in equity markets. This would be for a limited period and only in exceptional circumstances.

The Fund may also hold, on a temporary basis, all or part of its assets in cash or other ancillary liquid assets.

The Fund may utilise derivatives for the purposes of efficient portfolio management (typically hedging, including investing in hedged share classes, which attempts to mitigate against falls in the value of the Fund's assets and the effects of changes in currency exchange rates against the Fund's base currency, which is pounds sterling).

The Fund's benchmark is IA Flexible Investment. This represents a comparator benchmark because the Fund's performance can be compared to funds which also sit within this industry sector.
