Fund manager's commentary

Geopolitical events drove financial markets in March as the Ukraine crisis escalated and investors pondered the potential impact of retaliatory trade sanctions. Russian equities fell 11.79% in one day before recovering almost all this ground to end the month down 1.51% in sterling as fears subsided. Emerging markets and Asia-Pacific ex-Japan equities posted gains of 3.63% and 2.32% respectively, outperforming the 0.73% gain from global equities in sterling. The FP Brompton Global Growth Fund made an initial investment in these markets in March through the purchase of the Schroder Small Cap Discovery fund. US equities gained 1.37% as solid US non-farm payroll numbers allowed the Federal Reserve to continue tapering. Europe ex-UK equities rose 0.61% in sterling as key survey data confirmed a gradual improvement in activity and sentiment during the first quarter, particularly in the periphery. Eurozone unemployment has stabilised while exports and consumer spending data were encouraging. Schroder European Alpha Income outperformed and gained 1.35% in sterling whereas Fidelity Germany fell 1.78%, driven lower by the German economy's heavy dependence on Russian energy imports. Japanese equities fell 0.17% as investors awaited the impact of a planned rise in consumption tax on spending. Gilts returned 0.03% while sterling corporate bonds fell 0.15% as falling UK inflation reduced pressure on the Bank of England to raise interest rates. Ignis Absolute Return Government Bond gained 0.77% as the fund manager identified investment opportunities independent of the direction in underlying bond markets. The Global Growth Fund fell 1.05% against 0.69% for the sector.
