Fund manager's commentary

Grexit was forestalled by 11th-hour talks in Brussels although rescue talks could still founder on International Monetary Fund insistence that any deal includes debt relief. Global equities rose 1.69% in sterling, with Europe ex-UK equities outperforming, up 4.58% in sterling. July was a month of significant activity for the FP Brompton Global Conservative Fund. A new holding was initiated in Artemis Global Equity Income while the holdings in Fundsmith Equity, Aberdeen Property Trust and Henderson UK Property were increased. The disposals comprised GLG Japan CoreAlpha and the WisdomTree Europe SmallCap Dividend exchange-traded fund. FundsSmith Equity and Schroder European were the portfolio's best performers, rising 5.77% and 2.24% respectively. Equities in the developing world fell because the apparent resolution of the Greek crisis increased the probability of a US interest rate rise and consequent dollar strength. Asia ex-Japan and emerging market equities fell 5.56% and 6.14% respectively in sterling. Chinese equities fell 10.05% as Beijing's attempts to support share prices failed to deter sellers. Commodities fell sharply, with oil tumbling 20.85% in sterling. July's Iranian nuclear accord threatens to exacerbate oversupply. In July, the portfolio held no direct investments in commodities or emerging market equities. With lower commodity prices likely to dampen inflation, gilts and sterling corporate bonds recovered 1.60% and 1.76% respectively. The portfolio's bond funds underperformed, however, with M&G UK Inflation Linked Corporate Bond down and Templeton Global Bond down 0.45% and 0.36% respectively. The FP Brompton Global Conservative Fund gained 0.53%† in July while the sector rose 0.54%.

Investment policy

The Fund will invest mainly in collective investment schemes, exchange traded funds and unregulated collective investment schemes (which include limited partnerships) and may also include transferable securities (including investment trusts and similar instruments), money-market instruments, fixed income instruments, deposits and foreign exchange contracts.

It is expected that cash, cash equivalents and fixed income investments will make up a significant part of the Fund's assets, in order to maintain its conservative risk profile. However, investments will not be confined to any particular sector.

The Fund may also hold, on a temporary basis, all or part of its assets in cash or other ancillary liquid assets. The Fund may utilise derivatives for the purposes of efficient portfolio management.
