Fund manager's commentary

Global equities rose 5.05% in July after the Federal Reserve kept US interest rates on hold and improved US employment data reassured investors. US equities gained 4.40% in sterling, reaching a new high. Within the FP Brompton Global Conservative Fund, Fundsmith Equity outperformed, rising 5.93%. UK equities rose 3.47% as Theresa May's swift appointment as prime minister removed some post-Brexit political uncertainty. The Bank of England held UK rates but stood ready to provide support should capital spending deferrals affect economic growth. This was confirmed in early August when the Bank cut rates and announced fresh quantitative easing. The weaker pound should boost exports, increase UK companies' overseas profits on translation and compensate for post-Brexit trade tariffs. UK equity funds accounted for 17.84% of the portfolio at the month end. Lindsell Train UK Equity and Liontrust UK Special Situations outperformed, rising 8.01% and 7.81% respectively. The receding prospect of US interest rate rises coupled with investors' increased risk appetite buoyed emerging market equity and bond markets. Emerging market equity funds comprised 6.47% of the portfolio at the month end. Emerging market equities rose 5.81% in sterling, with Schroder SmallCap Discovery and Goldman Sachs Emerging Market Equity outperforming, up 7.03% and 6.00% respectively. In Japan, equities returned 7.22% in sterling and the sterling-hedged holding in Lindsell Train Japanese Equity outperformed, rising 7.35%. Dollar investment increased through the addition of the iShares $ Treasury Bond 1-3 Years exchange-traded fund. The FP Brompton Global Conservative Fund gained 3.23% † while the sector rose 2.93%.

Investment policy

The Fund will invest mainly in collective investment schemes, exchange traded funds and unregulated collective investment schemes (which include limited partnerships) and may also include transferable securities (including investment trusts and similar instruments), money-market instruments, fixed income instruments, deposits and foreign exchange contracts.

It is expected that cash, cash equivalents and fixed income investments will make up a significant part of the Fund's assets, in order to maintain its conservative risk profile. However, investments will not be confined to any particular sector.

The Fund may also hold, on a temporary basis, all or part of its assets in cash or other ancillary liquid assets. The Fund may utilise derivatives for the purposes of efficient portfolio management.
