Investment policy

The Fund will principally invest in collective investment schemes, exchange-traded funds and unregulated collective investment schemes (which include limited partnerships). The Fund may also invest in investment trusts (and similar instruments) and other transferable securities, money-market instruments, fixed income instruments, deposits and foreign exchange contracts. Investments will not be confined to any particular sector.

The Fund may hold, on a temporary basis, all or part of its assets in cash or other ancillary liquid assets. The Fund may utilise derivatives for the purposes of efficient portfolio management.

Fund manager's commentary

Global stockmarkets recovered in November after October's dip, gaining 3.91% in sterling. US economic data continued to exceed expectations, leaving the dollar 2.16% higher against sterling. US equities rose 4.91% but Europe ex-UK equities did even better, rising 5.80% in sterling. The European Central Bank reiterated its determination that quantitative easing would be deployed if necessary. Better-than-expected economic survey data in Germany spurred German equities higher. All the FP Brompton Global Growth Fund's investments in Europe ex-UK equity funds rose, with Fidelity Germany, up 8.20%, doing best. Japanese equities rose 2.05% in sterling as investors reflected on October's announcement of more quantitative easing, leaving them unshaken by the news that third quarter output had fallen. The prime minister, Shinzō Abe, deferred the timing of his planned consumption tax increase and called a snap election in the hope of extending his time in office. The dollar-hedged GLG Japan fund was the portfolio's best performer, rising 9.06% in sterling. In the commodity markets, oil fell 16.04% in sterling as Saudi Arabia decided to maintain supply. Cheaper energy is a major potential stimulus but could also prove disinflationary. UK gilts and sterling corporate bonds gained 3.08% and 2.26% respectively as the prospect of the first UK interest rate rise for many years receded. Gold rose 2.42% in sterling helped by India's announcement of an end to import restrictions. Blackrock Gold and General recovered 8.90% after October's sharp fall. The FP Brompton Global Growth Fund gained 3.70% in November while the sector gained 3.22%.
