Fund manager's commentary

The Bank of England raised UK base rates for the first time in more than a decade, taking them from the 0.25% historic low reached after the August 2016 Brexit referendum vote to 0.5%. Sterling rose 1.94% against the dollar despite stalling Brexit talks, contributing to a 1.77% fall for UK equities. The EF Brompton Global Growth Fund's investment in UK equities reduced during November through partial sales of the SPDR FTSE All Share and WisdomTree Europe Small Cap Dividend exchange-traded funds (ETFs). The latter has a significant allocation to UK smaller companies. All investments in UK equity funds fell, with Aberforth UK Small Companies doing worst, down 2.08%. US equities outperformed, however, rising 1.11% in sterling while global equities rose 0.05%. The SPDR US Financials ETF gained 1.48% as the likelihood of US tax cuts increased. Japanese equities gained 1.09% in sterling in the wake of October's election victory by Shinzō Abe, the prime minister. Lindsell Train Japanese Equity was the portfolio's best investment, rising 4.09%. Equities in Europe excluding the UK fell 1.62% as German coalition talks faltered although the euro rose 0.41% against sterling. JPMorgan European Smaller Companies and Fidelity Germany bucked the trend, however, rising 1.03% and 0.77% respectively. Equities in Asia excluding Japan and emerging markets fell. Within the portfolio, Goldman Sachs Emerging Markets Equity gained 0.18% but Hermes Asia ex Japan fell 1.91%. Partial profits were taken on RobecoSAM Smart Materials. The EF Brompton Global Growth Fund fell 0.25%† in November, matching the sector's decline.

Investment policy

The Fund will invest mainly in collective investment schemes, exchange traded funds and unregulated collective investment schemes (which include limited partnerships) and may also include transferable securities (including investment trusts and similar instruments), money-market instruments, fixed income instruments, deposits and foreign exchange contracts.

It is expected that equity funds will typically make up the most significant part of the Fund's assets, with the aim of achieving the Fund's objective. However, investments will not be confined to any particular sector.

The Fund may also hold, on a temporary basis, all or part of its assets in cash or other ancillary liquid assets. The Fund may utilise derivatives for the purposes of efficient portfolio management.
