Fund manager's commentary

Global equities rose 3.42% in sterling as the Federal Reserve kept US interest rates on hold and moderated its approach to shrinking its bloated balance sheet. Within the WAY Global Cautious Portfolio, FundsSmith Equity and Lindsell Train Global Equity outperformed, up 5.55% and 5.14% respectively. Weaker inflation and jobs data buoyed global bonds, which rose 3.35% in sterling while UK government bonds and sterling corporate bonds gained 3.36% and 2.52% respectively. Most of the portfolio's bond holdings lagged, however, due to their short-duration bias, with Man GLG Global Emerging Markets Debt Total Return the weakest, down 0.16%. The Goldman Sachs Global Strategic Income Bond holding was increased. Britain's parliament failed to resolve the Brexit impasse and UK equities lagged marginally, rising only 3.16% despite the diminishing prospects of a no-deal Brexit and smaller companies, up 0.34%, were weakest. Within the portfolio, Schroder Recovery did worst among the significant holdings, down 0.93% as its investments in "value" stocks fell in response to weaker economic growth and inflation expectations. Equities in Europe excluding the UK also lagged, rising only 2.68% in sterling despite increased European Central Bank monetary support, but BGF Continental European outperformed, rising 4.60%. Equities in Asia excluding Japan outperformed, rising 3.84% in sterling and Blackrock Asian Growth Leaders did even better, up 6.30%. Japanese equities underperformed, returning 2.75% in sterling, but Lindsell Train Japanese Equity outperformed, up 4.94%. A T Rowe Price Japanese Equity holding was added. The WAY Global Cautious Portfolio rose 0.98%† in March while the sector gained 1.27%.
